

Who does what? A guide to government services

For a full list of services and responsibilities, please visit www.oxfordcounty.ca

Federal Government of Canada	 Citizenship and immigration	 Criminal law	 Defence	 Income tax	 Indigenous affairs	 Money and banking	 Postal service	 Trade and international relations
Provincial Government of Ontario	 Police services (OPP)	 Provincial laws	 Hospitals and health care	 Roads / bridges (Highways)	 Jails	 Recycling collection	 Environment	 Schools
Regional Oxford County	 County-operated long-term care (Woodingford Lodge)	 Housing and social services	 Paramedic Services	 Roads / bridges (County roads)	 Public libraries (not Woodstock)	 Waste and organics collection	 Community Planning and Development	 Water and wastewater
Municipal Area municipality	 Property tax billing and collection	 By-law enforcement	 Fire services	 Roads / bridges (Local roads)	 Recreation	 Building permits and inspections	 Zoning and site plan approval	 Transit

 Note: This graphic shows which level of government is responsible for delivering each service, but other levels may contribute by setting standards, providing oversight, or allocating funding.